

SOUTH DOUGLAS CONSERVATION DISTRICT
NOTICE OF ELECTION
Resolution # 18-E

WHEREAS, the Board of Supervisors of the South Douglas Conservation District ("District") operates under the laws of the State of Washington applicable to conservation districts.

WHEREAS, the District is governed by a five member board, as set out in RCW Chapter 89.08 and WAC Section 135-110.

It is RESOLVED that a ballot election for an open position on the District board of Supervisors will be held February 8, 2019 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the NCW Fairgrounds, 601 N Monroe, Waterville, WA

The elected position expiring in May, 2019, is currently held by Lindsey Morrison.

Interested candidates must be registered voters who reside within the boundaries of the District. Candidates may be required to be landowners or operators of a farm, depending on current composition of the District board of supervisors. The filing deadline for candidates to file their candidate information is 1/11/19. Interested candidates must file their candidate information at 206 N Chelan Ave, Waterville, WA 98858

Eligible voters are registered voters who reside within the boundaries of the District. The last day and time that voters can request absentee ballots from the office is 3:00 p.m., 1/18/19. Absentee ballots can be requested from Carol Cowling, Coordinator, at the above address or 509-745-9160.

The election supervisor will be Carol Cowling.

A conservation district supervisor is a public official who serves without compensation and who sets policy and direction for the conservation district. The published election procedures can be viewed at the District office and are available from the Washington State Conservation Commission at <http://scc.wa.gov>

Adopted at a regular board meeting of the District Board of Supervisors on 12/3/2018
